LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS. HIT WITH A BRICK

John Caldwell Arrested for a Midnight Assault

Saturday night at about 12 o'clock David Wood, a tailor in the employ of Watson & Moli, was murderously assault ed on North Water street, near the cor ner of Cerro Gordo, by a negro, who struck him in the face with a brick with out provocation Wood was on his way to No. 904 North Water, when the negro stopped him to ask the way to the depot He turned to give the direction when the negro knocked the tailor down with the onek Wood was struck between the eyes The blood spurted and the injured man called men from the Boone stable to his side. The negro fled. Wood was taken to the Hall & Myers drug store where the wounds were dressed by Dr J C Hall The injuries are serious but will not prove fatal. It was supposed that the purpose of the assault was rob bery, but the police have a theory which as to the effect that the negro was hired to strike Wood by a party with whom he had had a difficulty. Before daylight the police arrested John Caldwell on suspicion of having assaulted Wood He an swers the description fairly well Cald well lately returned from Joliet, having served a term in the penitentiary

Praise for Decatur A traveling man at Mt Pulaski the other day engaged in a chat as to the advantages parks are to a city. He is quoted in the Acies as saying "Springfield is one of the worst places in the state for a crowd to spend a day in, not a seat provided where ladies can rest themselves, their only chance is to rest in a store, and there they are not welcome unless they buy a big bill of goods. Decatur, on the other hand is a dandy place for large gatherings the spirit of accommodation prevails there, tired mothers with babes in their arms. spirit of accommodation prevails there, tired mothers with babes in their arms find comfortable sents in the most de lightful of parks, where they may rest and watch the fountain play as long as they please, without paying toll in the way of trade I tell you, Decatur's my kind of town of Congress-Secretary Blaine's Objections to the Sugar Schedule of the McKinley Tariff Bill, Congressional Forecast.

WASHINGTON, June 23.-To-day is the District of Columbia day. If it prevails the House will resume consideration of the Atkinson, Baltimore & Potomac Railroad bill, which proposes to furnish the road with terminal facilities in Washington sufficient to obviate delay in landing passengers and freight. The proposition on its face appears to be of local character, but in point of fact it is of serious importance to the trayeling public and to merchants, North and South as well as in the District of Columbia. Merchants who patronize the read arge that privileges equal to those enjoyed by similar corporations in other large cities should be granted here in order that trains might be handied more expeditionaly. A factional opposition to the bill appears to have been created through an apparent misunderstanding of its actual intent, and the charges made that the measure contemplates vesting in the rail-road company title to the Govornment reservation now occu-pled by its Washington station. No such provision is contained in the bill and it is said that no such intention is contemplated; that the only mater involved is the right of the railroad company to purchase lands on the line of its road and with the sanction of the District Commissioner connect the maln track with the same basines. It would appear that unless facilities of this character are granted the commercial and traveling interests of this city and the North and South will sconer or later be compeled to suffer much inconvenience and actual loss. From a conproposition and of too general import-ance to a large section of interest to be gnored, because of its apparent local importance, or to be allowed to die because of ini-apprehension.

The House will dissect and probably pass the new Election bill during the week. The discussion will begin tomorrow immediately after the reading of the journal, and will continue until Saturday at three o'clock, when a vote will be taken. There Is every reason to believe that the bill will be passed. There is a chance that the Silver bill be brought into the House to-day by the coinage committee and its im mediite discussion domanded.

The Senate will devote some time uring the coming week to the consideration of appropriation bills, as it is the desire of both House and Senate to get as many of these bills to the President before the close of the fiscal year -June 30 as possible. The Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill is now on the calendar, and when it is called up for consideration the old and much-debated question of the relative rank of the representatives of other countries at foreign courts is likely to be revived and consume some of the time of the Senate. The Post-office Appropriation bill, also, is on the calendar, and the Indian bill and the Sundry Civil Appropriations bills are likely to be reported during the week. In spita of the tendency to get rld of the bills, it is altogether likely that before the end of the week a resolution will be offered and agreed to by both houses extending the appropriations for the current ilseal year to cover the month following so as to avoid as far as possible any deficit in current and necessary appropriations. The bill for the admission of Wyoming to the Union is the unfirdshed business in the Senate, and except for the intervention of appropriation bills it will be the business discussed until it It was the expectation of the friends

All we ask is, try a bottle of Magnire's of the River and Harbor bill that that measure would be called up during the coming week, but Sentor Frye, who is in charge of it, says that if he can get the floor for business of the committee on commerce, he will call up the Ship-Corrunts, O. washingroy, June 23.-There was a rumor current at the Capitol Saturday that a member of the Republican mapority in the House of Representatives ould present a resolution proposing an adjournment of Congress at an early day. Such a resolution would be introduced without party sanction, for it is the intention of the Republican leaders in both houses, if possible, to send a tariff bill to the President before the adjournment of the first session. The omment of Mr. Blaine on the Tariff bill, which has been quoted so widely, and the remarks made by Senator Plumb and other Republican Senstors in public debate, concerning the measure now pending in the upper house, make it evident that however near a mit the Republican party may be on the question of passing a tariff bill, it is certainly not a unit on the provisions of the bill as it passed the House or as it is reported from the Senate committee on finance. The Kansas Senators are freely reported to be in favor of sweeping changes in the bill, and it is currently believed that if such changes are not made their votes will be cast against Senater Ingalls particularly, with the fight for re-election now pending in his state, it is thought, is likely to be rather independent of party demands. sion of Congress, but to this proposition neither Senator Ingalls nor Senator Plumb has been committed. There is an impression that if the Senate should fail of this duty and Congress should adjourn without sending a tariff act to the Executive Mansion, the President will call the Congress together again immediately in special session to determine this question. There is no thought in the Senate now of an early adjournment or in fact of adjournment before the middle of August Mr. Hale has announced his intention of pressing the Reciprocity amendment to the Tariff bill offered by him in the past week in pursuance of the plan for promotion of the trade with Southern and Central American countries suggested by the International Conference and outlined in the letter of Mr. Blaine to the President, which was made publie Thursday. As this proposes a distinct departure from the policy of the House and of the Senate finance committee in several important particulars, it is likely to lead to extended debate. So the likelihood of an adjournment of Congress before the 1st of September seems to grow less every day.

Secretary Blaine on Free Sugar WASHINGTON, June 23.—The United the published statement of Mr. Blaine before the Senate appropriation committee in regard to the McKinley bill, that the whole affair has been greatly misapprehended. The discussion which took place was not in relation to the general schedule of the McKinley bill, but the feature which Mr. Blaine so sharply condemned was that of giving a free market in the United States to products of the sugar planters of the Southern continent and not asking in return free markets for the products of our own farmers where we can get them merely for the asking. Mr. Blaine has been working on this point ever since he returned to public life, and he al-

Mr. Blaine says that nothing could s directly and greatly benefit the American farmer as to open free markets among forty millions of people for breadstuffs and provisions, which can be done by exchanging the duty on sugar instead of giving it away. Blaine says that corn would not be selling in Nebraska for eighteen cents a ushel if the markets of Latin-America were opened to our products. Mr. Blaine thinks it would be a great mistake to postpone even for a single month the opportunity now presented to secure the South American trade.

A Peculiar Accident. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 23.—One person was killed and several badly in jured on the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia road at Calera yesterday morning by an accident which happened in a very peculiar manner. The engine of a passenger train had been detached from the cars and started for a coal chute, three-quarters of a mile away, leaving the cars standing on the track.

The engine had gone but a short distance when the engineer saw a freight train coming down the track toward him. The engineer seeing that a collis ion was inevitable, reversed his engine and shut off steam. He then jumped from his engine, closely followed by his fireman. The freight engine struck the pessenger engine with full force and the collision opened the throttle of the passenger engine, which, without any occupant, started back toward the train. It was going forty miles an hour when it struck the passenger train. An express car and a passenger coach were completely wrecked. A negro nurse employed by O. M. Reynolds was instantly killed, and the infant child of Mr. Reynolds was severely injured. Mrs. Abner Pither, wife of the conductor of the train, was badly hurt and severa other passengers were more or less bruised.

EARLVILLE, Ia., June 23.—While the work-gang of the Milwaukee road was eating breakfast at a boarding house near the railway tracks, Saturday, a tramp entered the cab of the locome tive attached to the work-train stand ing at the depot and opened the throttle. The train pulled out with lightning speed, and although the railroad men saw it start they were unable to overtake it. Ten minutes late the engine of an incoming freight train was detached and pursuit was made The work-train was found standing on the track seven miles west, but no trace was ediscovered of the thief. Steam was up in the engine, but the tramp was evidently afraid to run by the town and so deserted his stolen property.

THE END OF A SPREE. George Mason Fatally Hurt

Wabash Crossing.

On Sunday George Mason was Decatur with his brother, and while roaming about the city he became intoxicated to the extent that after 9 o'clock in the evening the police, noticing his condition, told him to go home. George was peaceable and he acted on the suggestion, getting on the street car to go to Oakland Park, whence he intended to walk to his home southwest of the city across the St. Louis bridge which spans the Sangamon river. He was seen by everal parties on the car and also after he left the car at the west end. Some time after Wabach train 44, due at the depot at 10:10, the grouns of a man were heard near the cattle guard, at the south side of the railroad crossing, below the entrance to Oakland Park, by a party assing in a buggy, and an investigation resulted in the discovery that Mason had been run over by the passenger train and horribly mangled. Both legs were frightfully crushed just below the trunk of the body, and the bones of the right limb stripped of the flesh stuck out like a walking stick. A crowd collected, and Dr. D. H. Heil, the county physician, was summoned to the scene. He administered a quantity of chloroform, and in J. B. Bullard's undertaking wagon Mason was removed to the Franklin House, where Dr. Heil and Dr. W. J. Chenoweth proceeded to amoutate the limbs. This they accomplished at 1:45 a. m., but at 2:15 the man died. Coroner Bendure now has charge of the remains and will hold an inquest at the Bullard rooms this afternoon. The deceased was a brick mason in the mploy of Randall, Troutman & Co., and had been working on the shoe factory at $3.50 a day. He was 26 years of age and was an adopted son of Asbury Childers. He has a wife and two step-children at Kansas City, Mo. His wife was formerly Mrs. Mary Champ, whom he married: Decatur five years ago. The deceased was a native of Decatur. His father was Thos Mason, who 24 years ago while driving a team for Robert Fleming near Green wood cemetery was injured in a runaway accident. He became demented an died. Asbury Childers took little George and raised him

This forenoon the Republican reporter scertained that there were two witnesses of the occurrence. They were a young ing out of the park gate. Standing against the fence on the east side of the ailroad south of the crossing Mason was singing loudly, and just as the approaching train came along Mason stepped on the track in front of the engine with the result stated. The horror of the sight riveted the attention of the couple. It was over in a moment, and then M Humphrey and Mr. Hawkins, who had been down at the bridge, came up the track to discover the mangled body. The street car men and others witnessed th

It appears that Mason was found 15 eet south of the cattle guard, and when the street car men, W. M. Shockey and Frank Marsh, reached him with the car headlight Mason was able to talk a little. He said he was sitting on the track when struck by the 10:10 train; that he had been drinking beer and asked for more The story told by the two witnesse shove alluded to is probably incorrect ndging from the location of the body. He had started down the track and sat down. Mason went out on Shockey's car, and it was 20 minutes after 10, giving Shockey time to come to Water street and go back before the man was discovered. The for Apply to J. B. Bullard undertaking rooms at 10 a m. June 24, Rev. J. T. Finley officiating Burial in Greenwood.

Assassination of a Farmer in the Presence of His Wife.

A cowardly and cold-blooded murder was committed in Monticello, in Piatt county, Saturday night. Harley Russell and wife had been to Monticello and were returning to their home on the Lodge farm in the country. When they were just outside of town they were halted by two men, one of whom seized the horse and held him, while the other drew a revolver, and going up to Russell's buggy, shot him through the body, the ball penetrating the right side between the rice and causing a fatal wound, from which Russell died at 11 o'clock Sunday forences.

Russell testified in his dying etatement and repeated it several times, that he lecognized the man who shot hum as being Calvin Holden and says the man who held the horse was Albert Dunham. His wife also says the same. Sheriff His wife also says the same. Sheriff George Miller arrested Holden and Dunham and placed them in jail. They deny their guilt but the evidence points to them and public the states of the same and the same and the same and the same are same as the same and the same are same as the same are same are same are same as the same are them and public feeling is strong against them. It appears that the possession of atem. It appears that the possession of a farm belonging to W. E. Lodge, the well-known attorney, was the real cause of the tragedy. It is a complicated case as to the motive for the murder. The trial will bring out the facts.

Dunham was sent to the penitentiary some time ago for a term of three year from Macon county for stealing a watch. Both men affirm their innocence, but the evidence against them is very strong THE special Holiness meetings

On next Sunday evening by request she will preach a doctrinal ermon, explaining what Universalists believe and practice.

Mrs. Thomas Doyle, aged 58, leaving husband and five children, died at East St. Louis Saturday afternoon. The decensed was a sister of James Delaney, of Niantic, and aunt of Ald, P. W. Delaney, of this city. The body will be brought to Decatur to night and the funeral will take place to-morrow at 8 a, m. from the Catholic church. Decease lived in Decatur 12 years ago.

SOME OLD FASHJONED STOCKS. Down in Washington county I heard of an old fellow, a venerable octogenarian, who had seen his melars depart one by It was not till 1796 or 1797 that one, while his canines and incisors fol church was crected in Harpersfield. It lowed in mournful procession, until old was built from contributions made by age found him bereft of all his early assistants in mastication. Awhile ago he he inhabitants, each one formshing material of some kind, such as hewn timber, visited a dentist in a neighboring town to ards, shingles, etc., being so very poor at the time that few could furnish any money. The same year a place was built called stocks, and a whipping post preand announced that he had concluded to nvest in a set of false teeth, and at once began to discuss the financial points in-volved During the discussion he ex-plained why he was compelled at this pared by Isaac Pierce for the purpose of inflicting pumshment on any who had late hour to make such a venture "Yer teen charged with crime and found see," said the old man, "wobbling" his toothless jaws, "I ben a-needin suthin o' the kind fer a long spell back, but quilty of the same by a jury A good deal of currouty was exhibited, especially among the fair sex, to get a shingse of the ordeal, and after they were completed Alexander Harper, who brother Ephrum, who was more'n ten year older'n I be he had a bran new pa'r, reg lar double deckers they war, 'n's Ephrum war a-ailin' and likely wouldn't last long, I jest waited erlong for his'n, 'n' I ben waitin' fur them teeth," disgustedly, "sence way back in the seven ties, tell abaout a month ago"—here his voice took on a sarcastic tone—"Ephrum foot in, talling her that 'that fool of a he jest couldn't stick it aout no longer, Parce had made them, and they would 'n' he up n' died But, dern it"—indig nantly—"ef he didn t ensist afore he left t hold any one She put in her foot and he let down the that them thar teeth should be buried 11 ck locked the same fast and walked ff amil the hearty laugh of the specta along with him!—ensisted on it, 'n' what's more he jest shet his mouth so tarnal rs and her own earnest entreaties but solid no mortal man could ha' got 'em, Cincinnati Building Associations. The building association interest in this vicinity is at this time more than ever before in need of a central ex change Many of the savings societies m Hamilton county have accumulations of money not invested. These idle accu mulations vary in amounts from $1,000 to $20 000 Of the $40 building associations in this vicinity probably fifty have at all times idle capital, and a fair aver age of the amount on hard would be $2,000 for each one, or $100,000 in all, which at 6 per cent per annum would be $6 000 actual loss annually to the building association fraternity by reason of non invested funds. If there existed an exchange supported by all the associations in this vicinity then the idls cap ital of the one could be diverted to excess needs of the other, and the profit on the loan would remain in the building association circle and not go outside to the banks. The cost of supporting such an exchange including rent, clerk hire, gas, fuel, etc. would not exceed $2,000 a year or less than $10 for each associa non, and would accomplish the saving of $4 000 a year for the fraternity.
